Plaintiff,	)	ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING
	)	FINAL HEARING ON PETITION
vs.	)
Justin Raymond Bear Runner,	)	Case No. 3:16-cr-160
Defendant.	)

---

In accordance with Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.1(a)(6) and 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a), I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant.

PART I – FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

Alternative A – The Court finds one or more of the following:

- ☐ (1) The Defendant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant is not likely to flee.
- ☐ (2) The Defendant has not proven by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant does not pose a danger to the safety of other persons or the community.

Alternative B – The Court finds one of the following:

- ☒ (1) Defendant does not contest detention at this time.
- ☐ (2) Defendant is not eligible for release at this time.

PART II – WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

A petition alleges Justin Raymond Bear Runner violated supervised release conditions. During the September 12, 2023 initial appearance on that petition, the United States moved for his detention pending a revocation hearing. The court explained Bear Runner's right to have a detention hearing within three business days, he confirmed he had discussed that right with counsel, confirmed he understood that right, and confirmed his decision to ask that the detention hearing be continued indefinitely. The court therefore finds, at this time, Bear Runner has not overcome the presumption of detention that applies in post-conviction matters. The court will schedule a detention hearing at Bear Runner's request.

PART III – DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with court proceedings.
